

Likelihood

Measurement
Model

Parameter

A graph showing a Gaussian (bell-shaped) curve representing a likelihood function. The vertical axis is labeled 'Likelihood' and the horizontal axis is labeled 'Parameter'. The curve is filled with a dark red color. A vertical black line is drawn through the peak of the curve, dividing the area under the curve into two equal halves. The text 'Measurement Model' is written in the top-left corner of the plot area.